Definitions

Burial Licence means an exclusive right to bury the remains of one or more persons in a burial place as defined in the Crown Lands (General Reserves) By-Law 2006. A burial licence may be pre-purchased for an interment in a grave at a later date.

Holder, in relation to a Burial Licence, means the person recorded in the Register as the holder of the Burial Licence.

Monument means any structure, plaque, headstone, masonry, metal work, casting or item placed over in or around a Burial Place.

Monumental Work

1. Council may refuse an application if it is of the opinion that the material, design, bulk, scale or standard of the work is incompatible with existing monuments in the Cemetery.
2. The construction and erection of monuments must adhere with the current Australian Standard AS4204 – Headstones and Cemetery Monuments. In relation to the Richmond Lawn Cemetery restrictions occur on the size of the monument allowable, including maximum length 900mm, maximum width 330mm and maximum height of 220mm.
3. The holder of the burial licence must ensure that work is completed within a reasonable time and to the satisfaction of Council
4. All debris must be removed from the Cemetery.
5. Monumental masons must supply Council with certificates of currency for (1) public liability insurance with a minimum cover of $10 million and (2) workers compensation prior to commencement of work.
6. If Monuments or other structures are erected without Council approval or do not comply with these rules and conditions, Council may dismantle, remove or alter the Monument erected on the burial site.
7. The Burial Licence holder, as the owner of the monument, will be responsible for the maintenance and repair of the monument constructed or erected on the burial place concerned.
8. Council will not be responsible for the maintenance and repair of any monuments constructed or erected in the Cemetery
9. Council may remove, demolish or alter monuments constructed or erected on a burial place that in Council's opinion has become dilapidated, unsightly, is in unsafe structural condition or is otherwise dangerous to visitors or staff of the Cemetery.
