

INDYREADS

Home access

Library access

Mobile access

All ages

What is Indyreads?

Indyreads provides NSW public library members with free access to a statewide collection of eBooks and eAudiobooks from independent Australian and international publishers. Titles include classic and contemporary fiction as well as a broad range of non-fiction. Library members can borrow up to 20 items at a time for a period of 21 days, with unlimited reserves and automatic returns. With an ever-growing collection of both big-name and lesser-known authors, Indyreads is sure to have something for every reader.

What can I use it for?

Use Indyreads to discover a range of new books by independent Australian and overseas publishers. With over 9000 fiction and non-fiction titles, there's sure to be something for every reader. To get started, download the Indyreads app to your device. To read books from your web browser, go to the following web address, click on 'Indyreads' and enter your library card details for free access: <https://www.hawkesbury.nsw.gov.au/library/elibrary/ebooks-and-audiobooks>

Special features

- Over 9000 titles to choose from
- Available as an app or web platform
- Titles in other languages
- Huge range of classic titles